Greetings

We are excited to support this incredible opportunity for school leavers to deepen their faith, discover more of God's purpose for their lives, and be equipped for all He has called them to. Being mentored by passionate, faith-filled leaders while serving in mission is a powerful way to grow in both character and leadership. Purpose Ngātoro Tūkaha

Moving from school into young adulthood is a big transition. Ngātoro Tūkaha is a programme designed to support rangatahi to stand strong in a maturing faith through these important changes. Our name refers to the process of a tree putting down deep roots to enable it to stand strong no matter what the circumstances. Devoting a year to be part of Ngātoro Tūkaha means investing time putting down the roots of intimacy with Jesus, meaningful relationships, cultural discernment, and understanding how God has shaped you to be a blessing in His world!

Testimonials

Hayden James

The Ngātoro Tūkaha program was a truly life-changing experience that has set me up for life! I didn't know what I wanted to do when I left school, but now I am confident for my future, and I am excited for what God has in store for me.

Lovey Marsters

Participating in this programme was a meaningful experience that helped me grow personally, academically, and spiritually. As I began my studies, Ngātoro Tūkaha provided a supportive environment where I could build friendships with others my age, strengthen my faith, and settle into college life. Through weekly talks, shared prayers, and in-person gatherings, I developed greater confidence and a stronger sense of belonging within the college community. One of my highlights was visiting a marae, where I realised I could embrace both my cultural identity and my faith without feeling like I had to choose one over the other. This gave me a deeper appreciation of how culture and Christianity can complement each other. Looking back, Ngātoro Tūkaha has had a lasting impact on my personal development. It strengthened my faith, increased my confidence, and gave me a solid foundation for my studies and future ministry. The support I received throughout the year was especially meaningful, as I was navigating personal challenges, and the encouragement I received helped me keep moving forward.
