

Level 5 Diploma CHAPLAINCY

The Diploma in Chaplaincy is a foundational level programme in Christian Studies tailored towards those who are intending to minister as chaplains in the community. This programme enables students to complete the New Zealand Diploma in Christian Studies (Level 5) with a strand in Chaplaincy. The Diploma is a combination of delivery through intensives of 3 and 4-day duration and distance education/e-learning or campus studies.

Course Structure:

Narrative of the First Testament (15 credits)	Chaplaincy Practice 1 (30 credits)
Writings of the New Testament (15 credits)	Chaplaincy Practice 2 (30 credits)
Understanding the Faith (15 credits)
Communicating the Gospel (15 credits)

Length Of Programme

Full-Time: 1 Year (4 papers per semester)
Part-Time: Up to 4 Years (average of 2 papers per semester)

WHY ALPHACRUCIS COLLEGE

Alphacrucis offers a pathway of training and accreditation for everyone, from school leavers to retirees, men, women, mums and dads, people working fulltime or those looking for a career change. This programme of study will provide you with the specific skills to be an effective community chaplain in work places, care facilities, institutions, and in crisis situations. This involves studying a range of topics from loss and grief, managing conflict, crisis intervention and many other areas. This programme is also valuable for Pastoral care activity within the local church and for shaping a Christian worldview.
